

Explore Colours with Tate!

There are so many colours all around us, and that makes the world a wonderfully vibrant place.

Let's explore red, yellow, green and everything in between!

What happens when you mix 2 different colours together?

Can you think of other foods that match each colour shown above?

Draw a picture using all the colours that Tate explores in this story.